Grissom Fields of Dreams

Helping to make your baseball dreams come true!

Summer/Fall High School Instructional League

Open to high school players, the purpose of the league is to provide an opportunity to educate and compete with and against the top players in the area while continuing to developing and showcasing their talents in an effort to get to the next level.

The league has three divisions junior (class 2011 and under), senior Class 2010 and under) and collegiate (class 2009 and older).

Signups for the Summer 2009 season will be held in May of 2009.

Signups for the Fall 2009 season will be held in July of 2009.

The league fees are $750.00 per team and $150.00 per individual players.
Price includes 2 clinics with a professional instructor and 8 games.
(You can choose to play in both leagues for $1500.00 per teams and 300.00 per players)
If uniforms are needed there will be an additional fee.

Summer league games will be played June and July primarily Monday – Friday

Fall league games will be played August and September on Sundays, with limited Saturday as necessary.

To reserve your spot mail in a $250.00 non-refundable deposit.

We are working with local high schools to use high school fields to play as well as the Grissom Fields of Dreams. All participating schools can charge a gate fee and have concessions for the schools fundraising efforts.

Payments are due payable to Grissom Fields of Dreams and mailed to the attention of Trinderlyn Alexander
